Patrol Officer Tactical Response Program

Our Patrol Officer Tactical Response program gives officers the tactics, tools, and strategies to respond to active threats effectively and safely. Our team personalizes the training to focus on the critical skills officers need to respond to critical incidents. We teach de-escalation tactics designed to meet use of force legal standards and departmental procedures. Using scenario-based training, we give participants the chance to execute, improve, and evaluate the targeted skillsets.

Patrol Officer Tactical Response

Length: 3-5 days (depending on client availability)

Delivery: In-person

Audience: Patrol officers of any experience level

Continuing to learn new skills and refresh existing ones can be the difference between life and death in an active threat situation. This team-based training is an opportunity to strengthen key skills and work together, so your team is ready for anything.

OUR COURSE COVERS THE FOLLOWING TOPICS:

- Priority of threats
- Threat indicators
- Contact teams versus search teams
- Link-up procedures
- One- to four- person movement and room entries
- Emergency medical treatment, including tourniquet application
- Breaching considerations
- Incorporating established rescue task force units
- How to facilitate future training scenarios independently
- Familiarization and development of standard operating procedures

AFTER THE TRAINING:

We provide a written debrief report that includes evaluations of each participant and recommendations for further training.

Officers who successfully complete the course will be granted a certificate of completion to show their proficiency.
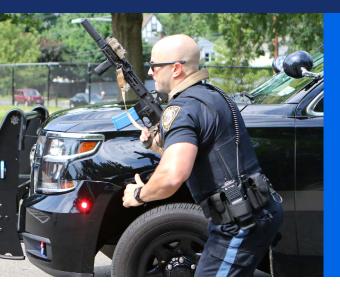

PARTICIPANT FEEDBACK

" The Tomahawk team was excellent. I honestly didn't want to stop training and continuously wanted to be the first to get a rep in."

– Law enforcement participant

" It's easy to learn from the Tomahawk trainers who have the highest level of skill and experience and don't lead with their ego but maintain command."

– Law enforcement participant
